Vernon City Council members appoint Isaac Garibay to serve as city’s human resources director

Vernon, CA – Members of the Vernon City Council have appointed Isaac Garibay to serve as director the city’s Human Resources department. Mr. Garibay assumed his new position today. He previously served for nearly four-years as head of the City of Temecula’s Department of Human Resources.

Mr. Garibay has 16-years of private and public sector experience in human resources management, labor relations, employee benefits, employee recruitment, risk management, employee classification and compensation, and personnel policies.

Before serving as Temecula’s human resources director, Mr. Garibay worked for nearly a decade with the City of Chino where he rose to the position of human resources analyst. He began his professional career in human resources at the Montgomery Wards Distribution Center in June 2000. He accepted the position of human resources associate with West Covina-based East Valley Community Health Center in 2001.

Mr. Garibay earned his master’s degree in Public Administration from California State University, Dominguez Hills, and earned his Bachelor of Science in Business Administration with an emphasis on Management and Human Resources from California State Polytechnic University, Pomona. Mr. Garibay is a member of the Society for Human Resource Management. He succeeds Teresa McAllister, who retired as Vernon’s human resources director in October 2015.
